Heavy Metal Hitman with 6 Prong Paw and 3 others

#1 For 6PP: How you guys doing tonight? Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Doing great!!! Just hanging around. Thank you for having us on.

Nick Williams: good

#2 For 6PP : For the people who have never heard 6PP, How do you describe your music? Tammy \m/

Nick Williams: aggressive, political, awakening and refreshing we don't limit our selfs at all. what about you seth.

Seth Earl: I think of us as just straight up metal, with some industrial influence to it. In general just a lot of influences. Boobs are neat. lol brtualz metulz.

#3 For 6PP : Which one of you write the music, or do you all pitch in? Tammy \m/

Nick Williams: Yeah we all pitch at some point. Each song comes about in different ways, I think some of us are stronger at certain things then others and together we work out the bugs. we never hold back opinions.

Seth Earl : Well, Nick and I are some of the main writers for guitar and such. Josh takes hold of the drums but accepts suggestions a lot of the time. But once in a while we all get together and throw stuff in and just make cool stuff happen. Chad also throws in some sick bass grooves and Dustin has some really original ideas.

Nick Williams: Computer God FRankenstein was the only song on the new album we all actually sat down in a room and wrote together in one night. it was very fast and spontaneous. One of my favorites.

#4 For 6PP : What inspires your lyrics? Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Political stuff mostly, that's what tickles Nick's fancy.

Nick Williams: Yeah I am very into the The Zeitgeist Movement, I am into social restructure. I am pretty punk rock, when it come to lyrics now days. I write about other stuff too but that seem to take over on our new disc

"Mapping the Void"

#5 For 6PP : What's your biggest influence in music? Tammy \m/

Nick Williams: I really like Acid Bath, Ministry, Witchcraft, Igor Stravinsky, Beastie Boys, Cannibal Corpse, Every Time I Die

Seth Earl: Wellllllllllll!!! I have many many influences. But my biggest ones may be Dimebag from Pantera, Mark Morton from Lamb of God, Fredrik Thordendal from Meshuggah, Paul Waggoner from BTBAM, and lastly Devin Townsend from Strapping Young Lad. OH YES!! Acid Bath as well!

#6 For 6PP : Let's say you have a World Tour, Who would be the bands you'd wanna play with? Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Mastodon, Clutch, Red Fang, The Sword, and us. I think that'd be like a great bill for us to be on.

Nick Williams: Every Time I Die or Battlecross I bet we would get along pretty good with those bands.

#7 For 6PP : Tell me about the live experience, What can the fans expect?

Tammy \m/

Seth Earl :Well, expect a lot of energy, maybe with a half drunk singer on stage. lol Depends on the day i'm thinking___ Love you Nick.

But we give off a lot of energy from what i'm told. Soon enough we'll be releasing a live music video so our fans will see and along with people that haven't seen us before.

Nick Williams: drunk....no not me! Hey folks I can hold my shit. It will be much more fun if I have a couple drinks in me...lol. Our live show is energetically playful. We are serious but we are not overly serious and like to interact with the crowd and get them involved. I like to have the atmosphere that your not just there to see us play but you are there to hang out with us and have fun. I will never be that guy sitting in the van before a show. (Unless I need a nap or brush my teeth) We will be on tour at the end of may into june, IL, IA, IN, OH WI, MN, WV, NY, NJ,PA, D.C.

#8 For 6PP : What do you think about YouTube and other Internet Music Sites that share music, ETC... Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Well, Tammy, I believe those sites are really great today for getting your music out and listened too. For individual artist, for any kind of artist. This day and age, everything is digital and shared digitally. But it helps get your music through.

Nick Williams: I don't mind sharing anything. Obviously in the early 90's certain people called it and now no one makes money off recordings. So I guess we are all going to have to stop bitching about it and play some live shows. lol Thats why we all started to play music really! Cause we wanted to entertain people and have fun! It wasn't to mull over every detail of a song in a studio and be FAKE. Playing music is about going out and being real and establishing a connection

#9 For 6PP : If fans wanted to purchase your music & merch, can they and where ? Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Our official website! And iTunes, amazon. Just a lot of places, knowing Nick, he'll post a link of our website.

Nick Williams: You can buy our albums cheaper at our website then all the other corporate fuck tards that sell our shit. www. 6prong.com Don't buy anything from iTunes...lol...Its a problem when the biggest company in the world is the #1 distributor of music....I say this as I type on a apple computer...lol

#10 For 6PP : It's time to wrap it up, Anything you would like to tell your fans? Tammy \m/

Seth Earl: Well, thank you for being awesome and always supporting us. Also, I would like to say that I was playing video games while doing this interview. I can multi-task goddamn it!!! Hope to see some of you around while we're on tour, if you see me or remember me, then just come up and hug me. I like hugs.

Nick Williams: Yes we will be on tour starting May 29 all the way through June.. We will be in IL, WI, MN, IN, OH, PA Maryland, NY, NJ, Pretty much east coast tri-state area. You can find dates soon on www.6prong.com and at the 6 Prong Paw Facebook page. Thanks Tammy Galer I really appreciate you having us on. I hope I didnt swear to much.

Heavy Metal Hitman: Thank you Doll.. Much Love
